Le 38Riv is a jazz club nestled in a 13th-century vaulted cellar in the heart of Paris' Marais district.

An atypical venue, it's no less in keeping with the tradition of jazz venues, with its close proximity, intimate atmosphere, unobstructed view of the stage, stone vaults and warm acoustics.

The 38Riv features a bar and a concert hall that can be arranged in various configurations to host concerts, masterclasses, audio-visual recordings, professional meetings and corporate events.

They have placed their trust in us

We privatized the 38Riv to present the new Dockers collection to media and influencers, with the addition of a musician and mixologist, and the experience was exceptional from start to finish.

The venue lends itself perfectly to this type of event: the acoustics are excellent, the bar functional, the atmosphere warm and intimate, and the team was incredibly professional and attentive from the initial contact right through to the end, including the catering for the cocktail party, which was of the highest quality.

Our guests loved it, and so did we! Many thanks to 38Riv - we highly recommend them for any private musical event.
